

map + guide 2012-2013

getting here

driving From Vancouver take Georgia Street or Beach Avenue and fall and Beach Avenue and follow the signs. From the North Shore take Lion's Gate Bridge (Hwy 99) and exit at Park pay parking Pay parking is in effect throughout the park including read to a control of the park including read to a control o the park, including roadways. Buy tickets at pay stations for hourly or all day parking (valid for all lots and roads).

transit Public transit services Stanley Park from points throughout the Leves V. points throughout the Lower Mainland. Several routes serve the perimeter of the park and the No. 19 stops near the Rose Garden and Malkin Bowl area, Website: translink.bc.ca tour buses Several tour bus companies include full-service and hop-on/hop-off tours of the analysis.

walking The park is within easy walking distance from downtown, the West End or False Creek. The

getting around walk, bike or blade The best way to see the park up close and on your own schedule. The seawall runs around the perimeter of the park and several roads, trails and paths connect the many points of interest. Bike and rollerblade rentals can be found just outside the park on Denman near Georgia Street carriage tour Stanley Park Horse-Drawn park's eastern side. Buy tickets near the Information Booth by the Georgia Street entrance. Operating March 15 to October 31 daily, rain or shine. Map 1 wheelchair Many facilities and attractions including the horse-drawn carriage tours, seawall and Beaver Lake and Ravine Trails are wheelchair accessible. The Stanley Park Miniature Train has a wheelchair

> stanley park shuttle
> The Vancouver Trolley Co. offers a narrated hop-on/hop-off tour to 15 stops

> > September.